

Daylight Moon

the Lord came not too soon
like a daylight moon-storm and stood in the rain

beneath the pain
of life

drawing a line from heaven to earth that took in the sky and watered the fields of love

until dissolving into the space
he felt like a ripple in the wind

