

and as truth reigns with Sangha on either side passion is raised aloft as virtue, open and soft the sacred line

bound within the eternal principle the sacred line is drawn the line that shall never be crossed and as the line moves to and fro the Lord is drawn curving down from heaven to earth and the principles shall turn a fertile green as the fruits of virtue can be clearly seen and as the cool pure water of virtue continues to know it continues to flow

and becomes full

then so natural are the principles as to be drawn in nature's gentle forms and, needing no other,
the world is our reminder to be good

then when the truth of love comes together with a love of truth a new brightness will enter into the world...
